This Chardonnay reaches a nice maturity at La Grande Courtade, where we have sun and coolness: if you go there during September, it is not uncommon to see a big cloud above the vines! Just what is needed for the grapes to ripen and not burn. We want an expression of freshness, we have to fight in the Languedoc to avoid overripe fruit! 20 % of the wine is aged in barrels, to give the final blend a delicate note of butter, brioche... our Proust's madeleine! A Chardonnay produced on a unique terroir, to offer freshness and complexity.
